The Four Way Test
of the things we think say or do....

1. Is It the Truth
2. Is It Fair to All Concerned
3. Will it Build Goodwill and better Friendships
4. Will it be Beneficial to all Concerned

Sheila Miller – Executive Director Volunteer McKinney

Sheila has been married for 37 years and has two kids and 3 grandchildren and one on the way.

She graduated with a BA in Sociology and Psychology and has worked in non profit sector around 30 years. Her specialty is volunteer management. She joined Volunteer McKinney as its Executive Director seven years ago and through her passion helped grow McKinney's volunteer recognition event and created a partnership with City to rehab homes. She also established Leaders Lunch and Collin County Volunteer Managers Roundtable.

Sheila has served on the national committee for Points of Light, Secretary for Texas Association of Volunteer Centers and also served as president on the Dallas Association of Volunteer Managers board. Sheila teaches the basics of volunteer management both locally and nationally at workshops and conferences.

Volunteer McKinney was established in 1978 and she is the 2nd Executive Director for this organization.

Mission: The mission of Volunteer McKinney Center is to enhance the spirit of citizens' responsibility and service in McKinney by facilitating volunteerism.

Scope of services: Volunteer McKinney Center (VMC) has four major objectives and core competencies:

- Provide agencies and potential volunteers a resource that allows individuals and organizations to access and promote volunteer opportunities through online and one on one dialogue.
- Provide networking and education opportunities for local nonprofit staff to improve their ability to provide strong and vital volunteer programs
- Recognize volunteers involved at agencies, organizations, businesses, churches, schools and within the community who have made a significant impact on those they have served by providing an annual volunteer recognition event
- VMC acts as a facilitator to bring together many organizations to meet specific needs of our communities through partnership and dialogue.

Currently Volunteer McKinney serves over 70 agencies and has over 120 volunteer opportunities listed. Since going online with our online web volunteer match program, we have had 15,000 referrals and average 100-200 annual referrals through email, walk in and phone.

Our Club Needs Some New Flags

We need about 150 new flags built due to the success of our flag program and Bryan has scheduled August 11th from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM at the shed to build them. We could use any club members that can help to come by the shed on that day.

Historic Moments – Rotary Mottoes

Rotary's official mottoes, Service Above Self and One Profits Most Who Serves Best, trace back to the early days of the organization.

In 1911, He Profits Most Who Serves Best was approved as the Rotary motto at the second convention of the National Association of Rotary Clubs of America, in Portland, Oregon. It was adapted from a speech made by Rotarian Arthur Frederick Sheldon to the first convention, held in Chicago the previous year. Sheldon declared that "only the science of right conduct toward others pays. Business is the science of human services. He profits most who serves his fellows best."

The Portland convention also inspired the motto Service Above Self. During a convention outing on the Columbia River, Ben Collins, president of the Rotary Club of Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA, talked with Seattle Rotarian J.E. Pinkham about the proper way to organize a Rotary club, offering the principle his club had adopted: Service, Not Self. Pinkham invited Paul P. Harris, who also was on the boat trip, to join their conversation. Harris asked Collins to address the convention, and the phrase Service, Not Self was met with great enthusiasm.

At the 1950 RI Convention in Detroit, slightly modified versions of the two slogans were formally approved as the official mottoes of Rotary: He Profits Most Who Serves Best and Service Above Self. The 1989 Council on Legislation established Service Above Self as the principal motto of Rotary, because it best conveys the philosophy of unselfish volunteer service. He Profits Most Who Serves Best was modified by the 2004 Council to They Profit Most Who Serve Best and by the 2010 Council to its current wording, One Profits Most Who Serves Best.

A Home Away from Home

For Cameron Wilson, the Ottawa Rotary Home has become a second home. Wilson, 20, has cerebral palsy; he's also blind, developmentally delayed, and uses a wheelchair.

He first stayed at the home when he was four years old. His mother, Joan, cheerfully describes her daily routine: cutting up his food, changing his diapers, and checking on him in the middle of the night – except during his visits to the Ottawa Rotary Home.

Rotarians in Ottawa opened the home in 1982 – when the concept of respite care was new – to provide overnight relief to families whose children have severe physical disabilities or other complex medical conditions. "You have to look after the caregivers," says Patricia Boomer, a member of the Rotary Club of Ottawa and past chair of the home's board of directors. "They need a break sometimes. They need support. It doesn't mean they want to give up their child."

Joan and her husband use the respite time to go on vacation with their two daughters, attend the girls' soccer tournaments and piano recitals, and deal with family emergencies. Last year, Joan hurt her back while moving her 160-pound son, and again, they turned to the Ottawa Rotary Home for support while she recovered.

She credits the home with providing a sense of balance between Cameron's needs and the rest of the family's. "If it hadn't been for Ottawa Rotary Home, I don't know how healthy our family would be," she says. "The home has alleviated an incredible amount of stress in our lives and for other families as well."

Since 1922, the Ottawa club has focused on helping children with disabilities, supporting a local summer camp and Easter Seals over the years.

The home opened with 8 beds, later expanding to 12 and quickly becoming a model for respite care. “For years, people have come to us and asked, ‘How do you do this, how do you do that, how does it work?’” Boomer says.

In 2007, the Ottawa Rotary Home Foundation launched a capital campaign to build a larger facility. Over 18 months, it raised $2.3 million (surpassing its goal of $2 million) from 11 Rotary clubs in eastern Ontario, individual Rotarians, families who use the home, and other donors.

With additional funding from several major donors and the government, along with a land donation of 5 acres by a Rotarian, the $6.5 million project opened in February 2009. The original home also was renovated for adult residential care, for a total of 29 beds serving more than 200 families.

The new 18,000-square-foot building offers plenty of space and state-of-the-art features, such as a Snoezelen multisensory room, which uses combinations of gently stimulating colour, light, sound, shape, and texture to enhance therapy, learning, and relaxation.

In 2008, the facility received a United Way Community Builder Award and the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce Not-for-Profit Organization of the Year Award.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of Friendship Day – August 1

Friendship makes prosperity more shining and lessens adversity by dividing and sharing it.

- Cicero (106 BC – 43 BC)

International Forgiveness Day – August 2

"The first thing was, I learned to forgive myself. Then, I told myself, 'Go ahead and do whatever you want, it's okay by me.'"

- Jack Handy

A man who reeked of alcohol flopped on a subway seat next to a priest. The man's tie was stained, his face was plastered with red lipstick, and a half-empty bottle of rum was sticking out of his ripped jacket pocket. He opened his newspaper and started reading. After a few minutes, the disheveled guy turned to the priest and asked, "Say, Father, do you know what causes arthritis?"

The priest, disgusted by the man's appearance and behavior, snapped, "It's caused by loose living; being with cheap, wicked women; drinking too much alcohol; and having a contempt for your fellow man!"

"Well, I'll be," the man muttered and returned to his newspaper.

The priest, thinking about what he had said, nudged the man and apologized. "I'm sorry to have come on so strong – I didn't mean it. How long have you been suffering from arthritis?"

"I don't have it, Father. I was just reading here that the Pope does."
