Boyd Interact Officers

Today we are pleased to be joined by many of the officers of our Interact club at McKinney Boyd High School. Joining us today is Trey Pierce – Vice President, Kelsey Terrill – Treasurer, Sierra Smith – Secretary, Rajiv Guha – Director of International Events, & Cameron Doyle – Director of Service Events. Unable to be here due to class are Club President Kasey Givens and Director of Social Events Stephanie Dankel. The members of the Boyd Interact Club will give us a brief recap of what their club accomplished last year as well as some of the plans they have for this year. Our club should be very proud of the start our new Interact Club got last year and all they have done for our community.

Also joining us today will be Meaghan Dempsey who was one of our RYLA representatives this summer. She is taking on the daunting task of beginning an Interact club at McKinney North this year.

Paul Yeager Receives Distinguished Flying Cross

McKinney Sunrise Rotary Club Member Paul Yeager was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross this past week.

Yeager, who flew 50 fighter missions in New Guinea in 1943, received the Distinguished Flying Cross, which is awarded to those who show heroism or great achievement while flying.

"It's an honor to have people recognize what you've done in the past," said the 88-year-old retired Air Force colonel, with the blue and red medal pinned to his sport-coat pocket.

Yeager received more than 10 decorations for his Air Force service, but the Distinguished Flying Cross award eluded him. He filed the paperwork for the award in 1943, months after he bailed out of a bullet-riddled P-38 Lightning and parachuted into the New Guinea jungle.

But the paperwork got lost and the award never came.

So two years ago, Paul's wife, Connie, contacted U.S. Rep. Sam Johnson, R-Plano, and asked him to help. Even then, Connie Yeager said, she thought the award would never come.

But two weeks ago, a letter arrived from Johnson stating the military had verified Yeager's Air Force service during World War II. He served in the 9th Fighter Squadron, 49th Fighter Group, between March and November 1943.

Johnson, who flew during the Vietnam War and was a prisoner of war for seven years, stood next to Yeager on Thursday morning and presented him the award.

"I just wish you didn't have to wait 66 years for this," he told Yeager. "Fighting in war is hard, but I can only imagine that waiting 66 years is even harder."

Yeager's wife then pinned the medal on his jacket, next to his bright blue tie of a P-38.

Yeager said that one day he wants his medals and military records to be displayed somehow. "When I die, I want it in an historical place," Yeager said. "It's important."

Reach One, Keep One

Rotarians are responding enthusiastically to the new membership slogan, "Each Rotarian: Reach One, Keep One."

"The slogan is a gentle reminder to do it!" notes John T. Capps III, a member of the Rotary Club of Morehead City-Noon, North Carolina, USA. "Keep a 3 x 5 card handy at all times to record that moment in time when the name of a potential member flashes in your thoughts."

"Each one of us became a Rotarian because someone invited us to attend a Rotary meeting," agrees William Pollard, past governor of District 7600 (Virginia, USA). "We all have a responsibility to grow our Rotary family so that we can continue to provide service to our local and international communities."

The RI Board of Directors adopted the new membership slogan at its June meeting.

The slogan emphasizes the need for Rotarians to focus on both recruitment and retention in their membership growth efforts.

"Membership development is each Rotarian's responsibility," said Paul Netzel, a member of RI's Membership Development and Retention Committee and a past RI director.

"'Reach One' reminds us that because Rotary membership is by invitation, it's essential that each Rotarian reaches out and invites someone to join," added Netzel, a member of the Rotary Club of Los Angeles.

"'Keep One' reminds us that it's not sufficient to simply sponsor someone into Rotary; we must also see that new members become active and involved Rotarians. We know this is an essential element in membership retention."

The new slogan complements the Board's long-term membership strategy, which was also adopted at the June meeting.

Member sponsor and retention recognition

At its January meeting, the RI Board adopted a New Member Sponsor and Retention Recognition program, which became effective 1 July. The program, also part of the long-term membership strategy, allows Rotary club presidents to nominate and recognize individuals for sponsoring new members while focusing on retention. There are several award categories:

- Gold pin and certificate: For Rotarians bringing 25 members into any Rotary club, with 20 still active after six years
- Silver pin and certificate: For Rotarians bringing 10 members into any Rotary club, with eight still active after four years
- Bronze pin and certificate: For Rotarians bringing five members into any Rotary club, with four still active after two years
