Jason Valdivia – Past, Present, Action

Past. Present. Action. allows students to experience encouraging, educational messages from beyond our community through different perspectives of life. In order to fully achieve our goals through this program, we need support from renowned community leaders. Since our community values its youth and the benefits that education and culture can bring to them, we hope that those ideals will be reflected in the show of support for this organization. The possibilities of how this organization can beneficially impact our community are endless – sponsorship will allow those possibilities to become reality.

Through these prominent speakers, we hope to motivate students to push the envelope academically, explore possibilities for education beyond high school, open their eyes to diversity in the world, and provide them with messages of support to dream big and fulfill their self potential. Not only do we believe that students will be greatly impacted by this initiative, but we also have faith that this will build a richer community, broadening horizons throughout McKinney.

How We Got Here

At a time in our lives when our worlds are expanding and opportunities for the future are becoming more attainable to us, we recognize the people, organizations, and community that have enriched our hearts and minds to bring us to this point. Going into our sophomore year of college, it became apparent that the experiences we had as students of McKinney ISD have played a significant role in shaping us into the people that we are today. As former McKinney Boyd Broncos and McKinney High Lions, we were able to serve our schools and community as student council president, class president, and various other leadership opportunities. Wanting to give back to a district that gave us so much, we have decided to found a non-profit organization – Past. Present. Action. – to introduce a distinguished lecture series of keynote speakers to McKinney ISD high school students.

Joining Jason at today's meeting are the remainder of the board; Alyssa Armentrout, Cody Cunningham, Allison Harris, Judy Poe, and Carson Radke.

Rotary Club Christmas Party

This year's McKinney Sunrise Rotary Christmas Party will be next Wednesday, December 9th, 6:30 PM, at Steve and Sherrie Mitas' home at 2130 Mitas Hill, McKinney. Bring one of your favorite Holiday dishes and a White Elephant gift to exchange. If you have not already RSVP'd please email or otherwise notify Eric Holt or Juli Smith as soon as possible with how many will be attending and what dish you will be bringing. It promises to once again be a great evening of fellowship and we hope to see all club members there.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Repeal Day – December 5

The wine urges me on, the bewitching wine, which sets even a wise man to singing and to laughing gently and rouses him up to dance and brings forth words which were better unspoken.

- Homer (800 BC – 700 BC)

Human Rights Day – December 10

Be as beneficent as the sun or the sea, but if your rights as a rational being are trampled on, die on the first inch of your territory.

- Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803 – 1882)

A hooded robber burst into a Texas Bank and forced the Tellers to load a sack full of cash. On his way out the door a brave Texas customer grabbed the hood and pulled it off revealing the robber's face.

The robber shot the customer without a moment's hesitation.

He then looked around the bank and noticed one of the Tellers looking straight at him.

The robber instantly shot him also.

Everyone else, by now very scared, looked intently down at the floor in silence.

The Robber yelled, "Well, did anyone else see my face?"

There are a few moments of utter silence, in which everyone was plainly afraid to speak.

Then one old man tentatively raised his hand and said, "I Think my wife may have caught a glimpse of you."

Son's Donation Inspires Mother

Margaret M. "Peggy" Bloomfield, a member of the Rotary Club of Westwood Village (Los Angeles), California, USA, was inspired by her son's generous support of The Rotary Foundation.

After Bill Bloomfield Jr. made a $1 million contribution to the Annual Programs Fund, Peggy matched it by making her own $1 million gift. Both contributions were the largest single donations ever made to the fund.

"Life is a gift, so it's important to enjoy it," says Bill, a member of the Rotary Club of Manhattan Beach. "It's also our responsibility to leave the sandbox better than we found it. Both of these mottos are the essence of what Rotary is all about."

Peggy and her son were among a number of Rotarians inducted into the Arch C. Klumph Society in late October at RI World Headquarters in Evanston, Illinois. The society honors people who give at least $250,000 to the Foundation.

including the McWane Science Center, United Way of Central Alabama, the Birmingham Museum of Art, and the University of Alabama.

In 2006, the Alabama chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals honored Ratliff with its outstanding philanthropist award.

Barbara Maves

Barbara Maves, past president of the Rotary Club of Muncie Sunrise, Indiana, was inducted into the society during a ceremony 28 October. Maves says she gives to the Foundation to support education for impoverished women and children.

"Educating women and giving them the tools toward self-support is a crucial way to end world poverty," she says. "Matching Grants are a great example of how the Foundation can help get projects accomplished that help with this goal."

Maves is a founding board member for TEAMwork for Quality Living, which connects volunteers with social service agencies to prevent racism and poverty. She also served as CEO of Planned Parenthood of East Central Indiana for 25 years.

Her service to District 6560, a Future Vision pilot district, includes membership on its global grants committee.

Marie Ingalls

The Foundation posthumously inducted Marie Ingalls, of Birmingham, Alabama, into the society on 28 October.

A member of the Rotary Club of Shades Valley, Ingalls was an active leader in her community, supporting health care, women's leadership, humanities, and the arts.

In 1991, she was named an outstanding philanthropist by the Alabama chapter of the National Society of Fundraising Executives (now the Association of Fundraising Professionals). The City of Birmingham named her Woman of the Year in 1984.

In addition to the Annual Programs Fund, Bill supports PolioPlus and has served on international service projects to build homes in Mexico.

Peggy has supported the Ambassadorial Scholarships program by hosting an annual dinner for scholars.

William T. Ratliff Jr.

William T. Ratliff Jr., a member of the Rotary Club of Birmingham, Alabama, since 1976, gives to the Foundation to support the polio eradication effort and promote peace throughout the world.

Ratliff, who was inducted into the society during a ceremony on 28 October, has given generously to PolioPlus and the Rotary Centers for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution, among other Foundation programs. His family's foundation has also supported several other institutions,
